This policy must be read in conjunction with the annual admission notice for the school year concerned.

The application form for admission is published on the school's website and will be made available in hardcopy on request to any person who requests it.

2. Characteristic spirit and general objectives of the school

St Paul's school is a co-educational primary school with a Church of Ireland ethos under the patronage of Bishop Ferran Glenfield, Bishop of the Diocese of Kilmore, Elphin and Ardagh.

"Church of Ireland/Anglican" ethos in the context of a Church of Ireland primary school means the ethos and characteristic spirit of the Anglican Christian tradition. This seeks to nurture and encourage the formation of the intellectual, academic, sporting, social and religious abilities of each child within the framework of the community of faith. A Church of Ireland ethos encourages intellectual diversity of thought and encourages the individual to seek to understand themselves, the world around them and the connection between the world and the Divine. This understanding of school ethos promotes pluralism in thought and living, in the context of a Christian school community. Drawing on its Anglican tradition, the Church of Ireland School encourages home/family involvement, highlighting the importance of the family/home in the social and emotional development of the child, and more broadly, the community of the school and church.

In accordance with S.15 (2) (b) of the Education Act, 1998 the Board of Management of St. Paul's N.S. shall uphold, and be accountable to the patron for so upholding, the characteristic spirit of the school as determined by the cultural, educational, moral, religious, social, linguistic and spiritual values and traditions which inform and are characteristic of the objectives and conduct of the school

This policy reflects the overall ethos of the school which permeates all aspects of its life and work.

The school shall have in place appropriate channels of communication and procedures

To inform parents about the school, its programmes, activities and procedures.

To enable applications for admission to the school to be handled in an open, transparent manner.

To put in place criteria under which applications shall be considered

To ensure that these criteria are informed by our ethos, & current legislation.

To specify what information is required by the school at the time of application.
